Vol. XX. No. 5.

ST. LOUIS, MO., SATURDAY, JANUARY 16, 1904.

$2.00 Per linnum, Single Copy 5 cents.

CITY NEWS.

Notes and News Concerning of Social Events, Deaths, Marriages and Births-Written Especially for St. Louis Palladium.

Mrs. Glen Hatch, of 4609 Maffitt avenue, is somewhat indisposed.

Mr. C. W. Thompson has removed from 700 North Jefferson avenue to 2624 Lawton avenue.

The gentleman's U. K. club will meet with Mr. W. A. Bolden, 711 Rutger Saturday, January 16, at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Hattie North, of 4154 Fairfax avenue, got her arm broken last week. She may recover.

Mrs. Alexander Terry, while yet in bed, is reported as being much improved. She has been sick for two weeks.

Mr. William Wright, of Quincy, Ill. is visiting here, and is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Newsome, of 4212 Maffltt Mrs. Thomson, the mother of Miss Anna B. Thomson, at 1714 Newstead avenue, has been quite sick, but we are pleased to note she is up again.

avenue, presented her husband with a Heart club. bouncing baby girl, a few days ago. Mr. Jones is employed in the post of-

Miss Viola Clay is now on the active list of teachers. Miss Clay promises to be found at the Marble Heart club most make an excellent teacher. She has any time. the manner so essential to the excellent teacher.

Mr. J. H. Hynes, of 1920 Wash street, is and has been quite ill for the past few weeks. He was operated upon at B. White running up to Alton, Ill., 30 the Mullanphy hospital, Sunday last, much. and is improving rapidly.

at her home, 1331 Gay street. Mr. company. Vinited was sick in bed last Wednesday. So there is a hospital at 1331 Gay Queen Esther Temple, of the S. M. T., meets the first and third Wednes- is still working for the Pullman comday in each month at K. of P. hall. pany. Mrs. Ophelia Benton, W. P.; Mrs. Mahalia Macklin, secretary.

Mrs. Christiana Gille has just refurned from Ft. Leavenworth, Kas., where she has been for several weeks visiting her brother. She is ready for her customers in hair dressing.

We are pleased to know that Miss success. She is a most charming young is requested to contribute to this wortady. A brilliant future was predicted thy cause. Refreshments will be served for her when she graduated, and it is by the M. M. S. ladies. coming true.

The reception and ball given by the St Louis Post Office Clerks' associadeserve great credit for the execution famed. of this grand affair.

The Harper's Married Women's club ments the second Wednesday in each month at different places. The place tions. The leading spirits of the new of meeting will be announced in The Palladium each month. Mrs. Florence Grant, John B. Vashon, R. A. Hudlin, Jenkins, president, 2725 Wash street Ambrose A. Clarke, Will S. Grant and "Mrs. Jennie Harris, secretary, 2739 Wash street.

Maj. Van Buren Crittenden, a highlyrespected resident of Edwardsville, Ill., sted. Saturday, January 9, after an illthese of several weeks. He was one of 26 children, of whom all are dead but one. Mr. Crittenden was very well Shown. He leaves a beloved wife and an adopted son, besides many friends, Fill mourn his loss.

Mr. Harry Jennings was married to a very amiable young lady, Miss include Crittington. They had a reto prion last Tuesday at Lucky's hall. was the attraction of all. The hus- and Allie Simms will also appear in hand evidently thought so. We hope in them a prosperous journey through who south Summer street.

NICELY-FURNISHED rooms for Field, 1552 Gratiot street.

DR. RICHARD BARTHOLDT, Our Good Congressman==Next week we will pay our respects to him and ask: Has he any more relatives to be placed in the Custom House in St. Louis-or Our People--Weekly Record is a public office a public snap for relatives?

THE PULLMAN BOYS,

Mr. George Sullivan, who has had a position with the Pulman company, is one of the best men in the service. He is a member of Onward lodge of Free Masons. He is a royal Arch Mason and a Knight Templar, and he stands well with other orders. He is a wholesouled man.

Mr. Martin, Shy, of the Pullman company, spent his holidays at home. avenue, a noted young man, and a and Lawton avenues, formerly occupied He has reported for work. He had a member of the K. O. P. organization, by Barnes' medical college, which will good time.

service, and has been running to the Taylor and West Pine street. He was city of Mexicon. We learn he is soon ordered to throw up his hands, and he to be married to a Texas girl.

If you want to spend a few happy hours, call to see Mr. Cross, head bartender at the Marble Heart, 1911 Market street. He knows the good.

Mr. J. W. Marshall, of Kansas City, formerly of the Baltimore hotel, is expected to connect himself at Union Station cafe, and so far, we have found him a prince.

Mr. Nimrod Jackson and Mrs. S. N. Alexander were out the other night, Mrs. Mary Jones, of 4108 Fairfax and had a good time at the Marble

> Mr. E. V. Ryder, of Oakland, Cal. spent a few days in our city.

Jess Jerome and Charlie Tutt can

We wonder what causes Mr. Hugh

Mr. Oliver H. White, of Nashville, Mrs. L. W. Viniger is yet very sick Tenn., is now working for the Pullman

> Mr. Mass Hall is the head waiter at the Terminal station cafe.

> We see our old friend. Nat Douglass.

A Musical, Dramatic and Vaudeville Regival.

Miss Hallie Q. Brown will present the pupils of her elocution classes, only in a recital, Friday, January 22, at St. Paul's A. M. E. church. The programme will consist of music, recitations, drills and pantomimes. Part of the proceeds Annie Segar, of 2634 Lawton avenue, will be given to Miss Dovie Reeves, a has been teaching for the past two student, and one of the sufferers of weeks. We hope she will meet with Waldon University. A generous public

THE OLD GUARD REORGANIZE.

The amusement-loving public of St. tion. New Year's night, was one of the Louis is to be treated to a revival of first-class events of the season. All dramatic, musical and vaudeville art, guests were in full dress. The clerks for which this city was once far-

The organization of the Lyceum Sketch club, which took place a few days ago, promises a return of the glories of former days in stage producorganization are Messrs. James W. other' well-known amateurs of acknowledged ability. The purpose of the new club is to give high-class vandeville, musical and dramatic entertainments on a scale far in advance of anything heretofore attempted. They have associated with them some of the best tailent in the city, and the public can look forward with assurance to a season of artistic enter-

The Lyceum Sketch club will follow Miss Hallie Q. Brown in opening the new Douglass hall, in a reproduction of the mirth-provoking musical comedy, by Mr. Charles Mathews, entitled, "Miss Amanthis," with Mr. John B. it was one of the grandest receptions Vashon in the title role. Mr. Hudlin, The ferent social functions. The bride of the two Grants and Misses Clara Hutt the cast.

Installation Services.

In the installation service at Pilgrim Henry T. Noel is the oldest Col- Baptist church, Rev. R. H. Brown, paspractitioner in Nashville. He is tor, was assisted by Rev. Geo. E. Stea saiet, steady, honorable gentleman, vens, who preached the installation He understands his work, and takes sermon. Rev. E. C. Cole delivered the tare to do it well. His son, Henry, Jr., charge to the newly-elected officers. How in Dallas, Tex., looking after Rev. W. D. Venerable was master of health, and The Palladium. The ceremonies. This thurch is in a prosperous condition, and great credit is office. She is a very dear, lovely young due the energetic pastor, Rev. Brown, lady. We only know this through the who is untiring in his efforts to bring telephone. We hope to know more of this church and codgregation up to the highest point of efficiency. The entire services were solemn and inspiring, and made a lasting impression for good up- a hunting trip. He brought three the the transfer of the high's o'clock p. m.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

The Ruth club served dinner on the first Sunday of this month at the First Baptist church, during the celebration of the fifth anniversary of Rev. E. C. Cole. The President, Mrs. Leatha Newcomb, and the other members spared no pains nor expense in seeing that every one present had enough dinner the city will be proud of. and enjoyed themselves nicely.

was held up by white men and robbed of a good sum of money, last Saturday Mr. Geo. Macauley is in the Pullman | night, about 10:30, on the corner of did so willingly, rather than to be killed. No policeman was in sight.

ject was this: "How pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in union." In the course of his remarks he said that there ought to be peace and harmony in the church, in the Sundayschool, the choir, the young people's at Evansville. union, and indeed all the various societies that are connected therewith. He demonstrated the fact that there N. and N., C. & St. L. comes out Moncould not be any union in the Christian nor world until the people learn to respect one recognized leader. You are right, Dr. Cole, and I will add that when the better class of our people will see to it that the officers of our churches and societies are men and women of high ineral character, whose character and daily life are unquestioned, then, and |-Mr. John Boen has just arrived from not until then, will we have better double tracked between Louisville and church meetings, better societies, better people and a holy union. For it is just as much impossible for any unprincipled, unscrupulous, uncouth or from Harriman, in east Tennessee, to immoral men or women to lead others, to better and holler lives as it is for a rotten apple to save a barrel of sound ones. Hence, I think it is the duty of Via Iron Mountain route, leaving St. the preachers, here and elsewhere, to see to it that good men and women, ladies and gentlemen, are placed at the head of our churches and societies, for

> The fair that was held at the First Baptist church, last December 21-24, netted the church $186.30. The different clubs-namely Pleasant Workers, Ruth, Carnation and gentlemen-will continue their work for the church.

those are the only ones who are willing to stand up for the right, for prindoné, we will have less trouble in our churches and societies, and we will be more able to follow one leader.

Mr. Andrew J. Smith, who formerly lived in Memphis, Tenn., who also con- his many good qualities have done ducted a first-class grocery, has come much for the elevation of the standard to St. Louis, and he has a most successful grocery and meat store, also another department connected with his store which will invigorate the inner man. Mr. Smith has a wife and sons, who assist him in business, and he knows no such word as fail. He is of a jovial, good disposition. When he makes friends he knows how to keep them. He is liked by all who come in contact with him. Go and see, and send order for what you need. He will supply you with all that you need. His place is at 1315 Clark avenue.

Our Office Girls.

Miss Daisy Bell, the young lady who has been with Dr. T A. Curtis for almost two years, is all right.

Miss Pinkie Walker has been with Dr. W. T. Curtis for quite awhile. She is an excellent office girl.

Miss Minnie Johnson, who serves as office girl to Mr. J. D. Miller, the noted editor, is an up-to-date young lady.

Doctors J. McDowell and W. D. Scott have a competent office girl also She has an eye for business.

Miss L. Graves, a most charming young lady, has charge of Dr. Fields' her in the near future.

Tom Turpin has just returned from Pickett's Headache Powders give in on all who were in attendance. Dr. N. ducks, three rabbits, cold feet and was as hungry as a wolf.

WORK PROGRESSING.

On New Hotel and Hall.

If the plans of the promoters of the enterprise are successfully carried out, St. Louis is soon to have a hotel and entertainment hall that every Negro in

A large force of workmen are rushing the reconstruction of the building. Mr. C. W. Thompson, of 2624 Lawton at the northeast corner of Btaumont be known in future as Douglass hotel for. and hall. .

The new hall is to be completed and ready for occupancy on Monday, February 8, and will be opened by Miss Hallie Q. Brown, the world-famed elocutionist, in one of her most brilliant programmes of dramatic recitals, under Rev. E. C. Cole preached at 11 a. m. the management of Mr. James W. and 7:30 p. m. at the First Baptist Grant, and supported by distinguished church last Sunday. His evening sub- local talent.

RAILROAD ITEMS.

Mr. R. C. Wallis has been promoted to the position of contracting agent of the I. C. railroad, with headquarters

The new Florida train over the L. &

The Iron Mountain route handled a large business to the west during the

The Cotton Belt route to Arkansas and Texas can't be excelled.

The Illinois Central railroad is being New Orleans.

The Tennessee Central is now open : Ifopkinsville, Ky.

TOUR OF ALL MEXICO.

Louis Tuesday, January, 26, 1904, under escort of Rean Campbell, manager of the American Tourist association, Quincy building, 113 Adams street, Chicago. Selected clientele, limited. All ciple and for God, and when that is 1 exclusive privileges. Independent travel, Special Pullman vestibuled train, drawing room, compartment, library and music room, with the largest dining car in the world, and the famous open top observation car, Chillitli. Special baggage par. Tickets include all expenses everywhere. For information, address any agent of Iron Mountain route. H. C. Townsend, G. P. and T. A. St. Louis, Mo., or M. T. G. Matthews, T. P. A., room 212 Equitable building, Louisville, Ky.

A Negro Lawyer to Hang.

Opelika, Ala., Jan. 8.—After three years in jail at this place, during which he secured two new trials on the charge of murder, Charles H. Sparks, the St. Louis Negro lawyer, is condemned to die at noon of February 5 in the Lee county jail. While in jail Sparks has received financial aid from members of his race in various parts of the south and from former friends in St. Louis.

DR. R. F. BOYD.

It is not every city in the union that can boast of having a Colored citizen so honorable, so public spirited, and so useful as Dr. Boyd. His name and of the Negro in Nashville. He is the sort of example that no Negro need be afraid to imitate.

ANTIOCH CHURCH NOTES.

Mrs. Jane E. Sharp, a missionary, who has spent twenty years in Africa, but a native of Missouri, lectured, Sunday evening. After her talk 20 persons enrolled their names, showing their willingness to organize a "Jane Sharp Circle," to assist in foreign mission

Rev. F. McKinney preached a soulstirring sermon from 1st Kings, 8th chapter, 21 v. At the close of his sermon four came forward to be prayed ties.

The church begins a series of prayes-meetings from Sunday night, in view of entering into a revival soon. Everybody is invited to attend.

Friends, you are invited to attend the B. Y. P. U. every Sunday at 6:30 p. m.

Mr. James O. Edwards, one of Antioch's Young ministers, has been called to the Baptist church at Ferguson, Mo. He took charge Sunday, the 10th. We wish him God-speed. May he do much good.

A Kind Word.

The St. Louis Palladium issued its New Year's issue in the form of a magazine. This showed much push and thrift in our western contemporary.—The Lancet, Baltimore, Md.

The above shows the opinion of some and P. S. Pendleton. of our esteemed journalistic brethern concerning The Palladium.

Getting in Line.

Miss Isabella Morgan is now teaching at the L'Overture school, and Miss Anna Segar at the Simmons school, shows that the association has received Next on the list of substitutes is Miss from February 1, 1903, to January 10, Alice Simms. We are pleased to see 1904, $1,333.98, and that it has expendthese young ladies in the schoolroom, ed $1,124.18, leaving a balance of $209.doing what they can to shape the 80, $205.92 of which is deposited in the

Another New Comer.

Hon. F. W. Baumhoff has been appointed superintendent of mails for the litemized report of the money receiver Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific system. and expended, giving the name of par-The appointment was offered Mr. ties donating and the amount, the pur-Baumhoff sometime ago, but he de-pose for which it was used, etc. clined, thinking he would be reappointed postmaster up to the last minute. The appointment takes effect. Febru- the Literary society will be ddressed ary 1.

Why Not Be Honest?

whack with the tailor man. Why not pers.

We wish to call special attention to the undertaker business of Harrisonwill last until doomsday.

LOOK AT IT

Square in the Face as It Now is.

We have said time and again that the state committee needs new blood. to close the city committee. The state or city have not won a victory for the past eight years. Now that Chairman Aking has been appointed sub-treassome other good republican should be placed at the head of the state committee. We believe in the principles of Mr. Thomas R. Mayo:

To hold any federal office is a public honor, but to secure it against the will of the majority is not only unfair and dishonorable, but un-American. Let a majority of the members of the local organizations control federal appointments in their respective locali-

When evenly divided, let local primaries decide.

Down with factionalism and the thwarting of the people's will by political hucksters and patronage peddlers.

Defeat at the hands of the people is preferred, rather than victory at the hands of political grafters. We hastely endorse the principle laid down by Mr. Mayo, and think a change will lie good. The republicans of St. Louis ought to demand a change. Mr. Akins ought to retire, as there are other peubles on the beach, and that place can be filled as well.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

The association held its annual election of directors; Wednesday, January 13, 1904, at which time five members were elected directors to serve three years each; three to serve two years each. They are Dr. O. T. Fields, Dr. S. B. Bell, E., Dinsmore, Chas. Anderson

Those to serve two years: N. Pryor, Thos. Nevins and R. Coshy. The twoyear directors are to serve out unexpired terms caused by resignations, etc.

The recording secretary's report young minds for the battle of this life. bank to be applied on the building fund, $3.88 are in the hands of the treasurer.

In next week's ssue will appear an

Tuesday evening, January 19, 1904, by Mrs. M. A. Ralney, subject: "The southern Negro, as viewed from a northern standpoint." Mrs. Rainey is A post office employe, who formerly a correspondent of the Times-Democrat, lived at 3004 ---- avenue, is out of New Orleans; also several other pe-She will explain the Timespay? He might find himself out of a Democrat's attitude with regard to the job. No woman can hold him any Negro question. The public invited. The following Tuesday evening there will be a candy pulling.

If you wish to get an up-to-date McKoin, 2743 Wash street. They will breakfast, dinner and supper, go to supply you with a winter overcoat that | Lavery's, 2220 Market street, for they will fill the inner man.

"I Want to See the YOUNG MAN Able to Do a Man's Work in this World."—President Roosevelt.

NG MAN, Learn Practical Embalming, YOUNG and thereby fit yourself for your proper place in your community.

There should be a colored Embalmer and Undertaker in every community with a Colored population. PRACTICAL EMBALMER, BERT T. HARRIS, PRACTICAL EMBALTIER, Lecturer and Demonstrator Classes now being formed. Thorough individual instruction.

2837 MANCHESTER AVE.,

ST. LOUIS, MO.

and the dark to the till had a market as soil

